

GARITDA PU&AINAM,

drugs, 0., Shatapushpa, Deva(d&rif, M4n»i, Shalleyafcarro, Vala, Chandanam, and Tatgaram. Hanch backs, dwarfs, maimed persons, deaf ones, or those suffering from Vyanga or Kushtham, as well as those who suffer from distortions of limbs in consequence of the enlargement of the bddily Vayu, or meet disappointment during the middle part of an act of sexual congress, persons suffering from the imbecilities- of old age, or from tympanites or dryness of the mouth, or from diseases affecting the skin, veins and ligaments have got a splendid remedy in this Narayana Tailam, the killer of all diseases, the recipe of which was formerly disclosed by Vishnu himself. Oils or Ghritas may be separately cooked in admixture with each of the fallowing drugs, vis., ShatAvari, Guduchi, Chitrakam, Vyosha, Nimva, the expressed' juice of Nirgundi, PrasSrini, or Kantakari, Varsh&bhu, Vala, V&saka, Phalatrikara, Frihmi, Eranda, Yashthika, Bhringaraja, Mushali, Dashamulam, Khadira and Vata. Confection, pills-, or pulverised compr>nn/ds of the foregoing drugs, taken with honey, sugar, and clarified butter, or with water, prove curative in all diseases. The intelligent one, should cook a medicinal oil in combination with Chittakam, Trivrit, P4thd_y, Malapum, Hayamarakam, SudhA, Vacha, Lftngalakim, Sapta»* parnam, Suvarchihi, and Jyotishmali. This> oil is called Syandanam Tailam and should be employed for the purpose of asepsiaing and heal\ng ulcers, and especially in fistula in

ana. The medicinal oil of great efficacy, which is called ChitrakWyam Tailam, cures all diseases; ,cook mustard oil in combination with Ajamodft, Sindura, Haritllam, {the two kinds of Ni»li5, the two kinds o' Kshira, Pljena, A'rdrakam, Sarala,
 ladra-Varuni, Apftmirga, Kadala and Kandala taken in equal parts with the addition of theusual quantity of goat*s urine.
 This Taiiam should be cooked over a gentle fire fc>nd with the admixture of cow-milk- The oil thus cooked.and prepared is called Ajamodi Tailam, which proves highly ^efficacious in scrofula and scrofulous sores. It induces satisfactory